BBN Board Reports

Chairman - Gwen Murray. Elections for the BBN Board are coming up in January. Kristin Hoffman, Kay Miller and Charlene Panek are the nominations committee. The terms of the following directors will be up for election: Chairman, Secretary, Neighborhood Watch, Court Advocacy and the 3 Community Directors. If you are interested in any of these positions, contact a member of the nominating committee or email bevonom@gmail.com,

The TGNCDC Crossroads Senior Living project, which is proposed for the corner of Gravois and Delor, was not recommended in this round of Low Income Housing Tax Credit Funding.

There are no updates about the Colonial Management Group (the group proposing a methadone clinic on Gravois).

The Beneficiary Deeds Workshop was dwell attended. If you missed this workshop and would like more information or would like to attend a workshop, contact bevonom@gmail.com

Gwen participated in The Youth Leadership STL tour of Bevo Mill. A video of the presentation will be on the BBN website.

The next CID Happy hour will be October 25,5-8pm, at Mariachi's.

The Election is November 6. To see a sample ballot go to tinyurl.com/STL-sample-ballot. It's a 4 page ballot, so you may want to review it before you go to vote.

On October 27, a commemorative sign honoring Robert Prager, a German coal miner lynched by an anti-German mob in 1918 will be placed in the neighborhood. The. Ceremony will be held at 9 am on October 27 at the corner of Bates and Morgan Ford Road.

We will be having our annual Trunk or Treat at the St. John's parking lot on October 31, form 6 to 8pm.

Don't forget about the Mouse Races to benefit the Police. It will be at St. John's gym on November 17.

Healthy Schools Healthy Communities meeting is November 14, 5-6:30pm at the Rec Plex.

Co-Chairman - Mary Hackett. Thanks to Vivian Brill for our new BBN banner for the meetings.

Treasurer - Kristin Hoffman - The Board members will take turns reviewing the statements and receipts for accuracy. The 50/50 was $40.

Block Captain - Nick Dunne - Block parties were successful. The next Block Captain meeting is October 23, 7pm at the Heavy Anchor.

Carol Howard, 14th Ward Alderman. Exec. Order to hire police living outside city. Not sure when she will introduce legislation about city employees not living in the city. New business at Morgan Ford and Bingham. Morgan Ford and Gannett is almost torn down. The owner redeemed the business. Will give a solid plan to Carol by 11/5. Will have to pay full demolition bill to get final use of the property. Saturday's meeting about the airport was well attended. Had about 50 people. Methadone clinic people did not show up for the meeting with Carol.

Beth Murphy, 13th Ward Alderman. Possibly another restaurant across from Chimichangas. Schiller Avenue still not paved. Waiting for sewer and water to put in laterals. Did a street study on Schiller while it was unpaved. Will do again once it is paved. The study is to determine if a speed hump is warranted. Working on tax abatement map to make abatements more equitable throughout the city.

Christy Boyd, 14th Ward Neighborhood Improvement Specialist. Call or contact CSB for all neighborhood problems.

Donna Baringer, District 82 Mo House of Representatives. Prepared ballot issues sheet. For judges, please check the Missouri Bar Association web site to read the judge evaluations prior to voting.

Jim Merkel - Author of The Making of an Icon. Book about the Gateway Arch.
